IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

LETTERS PATENT APPEAL NO. 19 OF 2006

IN

WRIT PETITION NO. 2462 OF 2002

RATNAGOSH HAGRUJI RAMTEKE .. APPELLANT

Versus

JANATA SHIKSHAN SANSTHA'S
HIGH SCHOOL & ORS. .. RESPONDENTS

Mr.R. P. Lote for appellant

CORAM:-SMT. RANJANA DESAI &

D.B. BHOSALE, JJ.

DATED:-10/2/2006

P.C.

. Heard learned counsel for the appellant.

2. The learned Single Judge has noted that the appointment of the appellant was not by due selection process and he was appointed only against leave vacancy. In such circumstances, we find no reason to admit this appeal. Appeal is dismissed.

3. The learned counsel for the appellant says that there are two vacancies in the school. If that is so the dismissal of this appeal shall not preclude the petitioner-appellant from making an application to the school and, if such an application is made, the authorities will consider it in accordance with law.
